

Answering the Call in the Midst of it All

St. Stephen's Cana Dinner with Deacon Gordon and Alma Richard

Bonds of love and commitment are strengthened when we respond to the Holy Spirit's call to be a sign of Christ's love in the midst of our sometimes messy, often confusing, and always challenging day to day lives. If we can cultivate our sense of humor to just mustard seed size, we can better appreciate God's sense of humor.

Deacon Gordon and Alma Richard have been married for over forty years. They are the parents of five young adult children and the grandparents of three. Before retiring to South Dakota, they spent their careers in various parish, diocesan and national positions of church leadership, including fourteen years in Minnesota.
